

I feel the censorship regarding physical exposure should be scaled back. Not so as to endorse a pornographic level of exposure but to allow for artistic and entertainment value to go undiminished and so as to promote healthy open attitudes towards the human body and healthy safe sexuality.